International Youth Days in Baltimore, Maryland

International Youth Days were held in Baltimore, MD the weekend before Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Grand Master E. V. Smith

Well here I am again setting at my computer trying to type what I'm thinking about, the past, present and future. Starting with the past. The Grand lodge of Oregon along with the Rebekah Assembly, and all other units of our Order, were well represented at Sovereign Grand Lodge. Those of us that went early to Baltimore had the pleasure of watching the Theta Rho Girls of Oregon and Washington. They did very well, I mean great at Sovereign this year. Bethany Struthers, Theta Rho President and Stephanie Wigle, Past Theta Rho President received their medallions for high standards. On Sunday we had the placing of the flags and opening ceremonies. Then came Monday morning. My head is still spinning from how fast of a pace the business portion of Sovereign Grand Lodge moved. I was told to be prepared to make your committee reports or motions and do not say more then what you need to say. I was lucky to have Ron Kunze and KC Carr, kept me going forward not backward. Oh yes, I also had the help from Sheryl Rohde as we referred to her as (Momma Bear), she kept all of us on point for most of the time. At the awards ceremonies Oregon received First Place for the living legacy and third place for Total Contribution to the Visual Research Foundation. We finished on Thursday like we started on Monday and the other days, at a fast pace. Baltimore was the start of the 200th anniversary, for it was the home of Washington Lodge No. 1, Baltimore, MD of the Odd Fellows in the USA starting April 26, 1819. Next year Sovereign Grand lodge will be in Winston-Salem North Carolina. Best be making plans to be there. I have started my visitations of the Lodges, I have visited Heceta No. 111, then a joint visit of Coquille No. 52 along with Bandon No. 133, then it was a joint visit with Jacksonville No. 10 and Central Point No. 193 then Gold Hill No. 129. Next I went to Albany No. 4 (9-18) Tillamook No. 94 (9-20), Klamath No. 137 (9-25) and Golden Rule No. 78 (9-26).

So far, the lodges I have visited all have been unique in their own way. The lodges that have cemeteries have the same problem. Their clients just never leave, and they can't seem to be able to raise the rent.

At this time, I would like to thank a list of people who have given money to my projects: Mabel Montgomery, Eta Theta Rho No. 94, Gary & Bette Hahn, Gary J. Kniss, Marlene Gray, Sharon Magden, Jody & Dave Morris, Dan Lykins & Bonnie Tomski, Mary Houle, Sheryl Rohde, Gordon & Lisa Corda, Bethany Struthers, Heceta No. 111, and Bandon No. 133.

Assembly President Denice Meeuwsen

Be Yourself, because an original is worth more than a copy.....

Hope all of you are surviving the heat and keeping cool, Our trip to Baltimore was an adventure. And, it was hot, muggy with a few mishaps. But, life is boring if you didn't have a few of them along the way.

Grand Master E.V. and I were honored to present Oregon's Flag during the opening session. I tried to take in all the events I could since I had never been to International before. I have to point out the Installation for the Department and ALAPM. Lady Michelle Jones is only 27 years. old! She's a Theta Rho PP and Rebekah Assembly PP from Colorado. How amazing is that! But then, that makes me a lot older than I feel. The SGL & IARA installation was held on Wednesday night. So glad I was able to go and enjoy all of it! I met a lot of new friends besides seeing a few old ones making it a busy week and finally a straight flight home 8 days later.

I also found that I had a few "mothers" in the mix also. Everyone was keeping track of me. Like, reminding me where I needed to be, and when. Some making sure I had a snack each morning (Thanks Vickie!!) Life was crazy and the paperwork piled high. Thank you Brenda and Vickie for keeping me informed on my supply list, the binder is full!!

Now the summer is almost over and I'm ready to come visiting. I'm really excited to get started and see how all of you are doing. Years ago the idea of the President coming to visit sent everyone into a fit. I hope we're all on the same level these days and if you read the first line in this article, you'll understand where I'm coming from.

We should ALL be working together for the good of our Order and putting differences aside during our lodge meetings and activities. Personality conflicts are a constant issue, Maybe it's the stress of not knowing what the future holds among other reasons. Some of the complaints are as easy as some of the (new & old) members not being involved. It's not always easy for some of us to share what we know. Maybe some of them might want to step up and do something new. For instance, take one of the desk offices in your lodge or just take on more responsibility. Let them do it! Not all of our lodges have this option. I know some have problems with the way others do the duties of the desk offices. Have you ever known any two people to write the minutes the same way? I haven't.

What about the Treasurer? I'm not a bookkeeper, but knowing the basics I do know this is another job that many of us assume we know more than the person currently doing the job. Instead of complaining about their job abilities, (or possible screw-ups) sit down and offer to help them out, but...let them try to do the job they were elected to do. Any more concerns? Call me.

If we can't get along as members inside our lodges, how can we invite others to join us. We're all adults and disagreements happen. But words can do a lot of damage. Please take a break and think before saying something you might regret later.

I love this Order, and my Rebekah sisters. It's an important part of my life. I've taken breaks and always come back. That says a lot for me, I know most of you feel the same.

Looking forward to meeting you down the road. Let's hope the fall weather comes soon. I'm ready to make a pot of soup!

In Friendship, Love and Truth,
Denice Meeuwsen, President

Grand Secretary's Corner

Ron Kunze

Brothers and Sisters,

I hope that you have all adjusted to summer coming to a close. I am ready for cooler weather myself.

After hearing so many talk about the Grand Patriarchs Luau, I feel we must give a very well done to our Grand Patriarch Lisa Corda. I am impressed with her many ideas and all of the tasks she has completed. Great job Lisa. Your Luau night at the Jesse T. Jones Park was a big success. I was told there were over one hundred people attending. You certainly know how to throw a party.

On another note with Lodges starting to come back to meetings from summer break please remember to update any changes with your Lodge cards. Remember, if you do not tell us your Lodge has changes then we do not know. I am asking all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs to log onto the Grand Lodge web site at address www.oregonioof.org and go to the Oregon Lodges tab and click on this to view all of our Lodges. Please let us know here at the Grand Lodge office by calling Melinda at 503-236-9300.

Please try to attend the Northwest Odd Fellow and Rebekah Association Meeting to be held in Hood River November 2nd-4th. It's a great opportunity to share your ideas for the future of Odd Fellowship.

Have a great start to fall.

In Friendship Love and Truth,
Ronald L Kunze, Grand Secretary
Grand Lodge of Oregon IOOF

A big THANK YOU to Kathy Lake for stepping up and taking over for me this summer while I vacationed in Montana. Kathy immediately agreed when I asked her to fill in and take over the editing with Estella Virgin. Kathy did a wonderful job, she is always willing to help wherever she is needed. For that and all she does, I thank her.

Joyce Clark, Co-Editor

From the Desk of the Assembly Secretary

Mary Houle'

Hello everyone,

I hope all of you are enjoying fall and you are helping to make your lodge successful. October can be a really good time for reaching out in our communities by attending fall festivals or handing out candy on Halloween at your lodge hall. By reaching out in our communities it is possible to get new members.

I want to let everyone know that my phone melted on my way to Baltimore in August. When the components of my phone melted I lost all of my contacts and they cannot be retrieved, even from someplace called "the cloud". This is a major disaster for me and I will most likely need counseling before it is over. New cell phones are not fun and they are definitely smarter than I am. I am asking that you please text me or give me a call so that I can recreate my contact list. My home phone is 541-942-9341 and my cell number is 541-556-7426. This will be a great help to me. Thank you in advance.

Secretaries and Financial Secretaries---This is a reminder---When you are filling out dues cards you must have the member sign the card. Also, sign the card with your signature not your initials. This was a problem for some of the representatives at IARA and we want our representatives to be able to register without problems.

Another reminder---Please remember that if your lodge is giving a gift to the President's project it must be sent to the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon Secretary in the form of a check. Please do not create possible problems for our President by giving her cash for her projects.

Northwest is in Hood River, Oregon November 2-4. I hope to see some of you there. It is always good to visit with Sisters and Brothers.

Fraternally,
Mary Houle', Secretary
Rebekah Assembly of Oregon

Theta Rho President Bethany Struthers

Hello everyone. I hope everyone has had a great first month of school. In August I had the pleasure of going to Youth Days in Baltimore, which was a very good experience. We were able to go to Fort McHenry and learn some of the history there. Last month I was invited to a reception for the President and Grand Master in Olympia, Washington, which was casual with some music. I would like to thank everyone who was able to attend. In September I also was initiated into Lorane Rebekah Lodge No. 252, Eta's sponsoring lodge.

This month I am looking forward to attending Rebekah meetings, more Theta Rho meetings, and a ton of school events. I have started to schedule some of my visits to the Theta Rho Clubs this year, and I am very excited.

In Happiness Through Service,
Bethany Struthers,

Grand Patriarch Lisa Corda

Labor Day weekend at Jones T. Park was a huge success. The park was full. The camaraderie was fantastic. And the luau was enjoyed by over 100 people. The weekend was a perfect example of what the love of the Order and teamwork can do. So many people volunteered their help. Special thanks goes to Butch Frost and June and Steve Love. The children from the Hawaiian hula club in Eugene were so graceful. Even those in the audience who learned to hula were great sports! I'm sorry I can't thank each and every one of you that helped individually, but know I truly appreciated it. Because of your contributions, we were able to give the Park over $800.

My visit to Hillsboro Encampment No. 84 went well and dinner was delicious! On Oct. 10 I will be at Heart of the Valley Encampment No. 26 in Corvallis. Please join us if you are an Encampment member. And as a reminder, any Odd Fellow can become an Encampment member.

In faith, hope and charity,
Lisa Corda, Grand Patriarch

Attention: All Members of Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, Encampment and Canton

The Encampment will sponsor a fun campout at Jesse Jones Park Jan. 11-12, 2019. Please call Mary to make a reservation asap. If you do not have a recreational vehicle, tent campers' sleeping spaces will be in the Pavilion. Breakfasts will be served. On Friday night spaghetti is on the menu. The Saturday evening menu starts with smoked BBQ beef brisket. Both are potlucks.

Why are we having this winter campout? We in the Encampment think this is a fantastic way for us to come together for fellowship and to have a great time. Please contact Lisa Corda, Grand Patriarch, if you plan on coming. Hope as many as possible will join us.

Promoting Odd Fellowship Through Positive Communication

Greetings from the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Pilgrimage for Youth Committee

As many may know, our youth pilgrimage program required revisions to be compliant with civil liberty laws. Our committee took a hiatus while The Sovereign Grand Lodge worked to revise operating procedures for the program. Sovereign Grand Lodge has given us directives and guidelines, so we may begin our work on our newly named program, The Odd Fellow and Rebekah Pilgrimage for Youth.

The committee recently met to develop a plan for revising our state level practices to meet our new requirements. Although the national program is now operational and accepting applications for a 2019 trip, our committee has elected not to send any delegates from Oregon. The deadline for notifying and sending money was moved up to November 1st which is too soon for us to accomplish all that needs to be done. We need to take this year to ensure our procedures are in compliance with all civil liberty laws, meet SGL requirements, and follow procedures that are equitable throughout the state in order to maintain the integrity of our Order in the public eye.

Here is a summary of the work we will be tackling this year to ensure we have a program to be proud of:

- Investigate options for and secure insurance coverage for delegates and staff participating in our tour.
- Provide background checks for all adults interacting with youth while involved with our Oregon program.
- Refine and disseminate state-wide procedures for selecting delegates that are non-discriminatory, objective, and consistent.
- Secure funding to support the newly mandated insurance expenses and scholarships for delegates.

The committee is seeking donations to support the program and encourages lodges to consider fundraising to support sending delegates on the 2020 Pilgrimage. Donations can be sent to the Grand Lodge office specifying whether the donation is targeting a holding fee for a delegate or to be used for the general fund of the program.

We will continue to update the membership on our efforts through the OPOF and invite any questions or concerns to be directed to any of us on the committee.

We appreciate your patience and understanding as we work to improve our program procedures. Our next meeting will be at 11:30 on October 20th at the Holgate Center.

Respectfully submitted In FL&T,

Committee Members: Cyndi Smith, Director/Chairman 503-551-4615, Inez Kennedy, Vice Chair Joyce Clark, Secretary, Patty Fries, Treasurer, Sharon Magden, Jody Morris.

News From Jesse T. Jones Campground

Another Summer has flown by, and this year we are still busy even into September. It was great to visit with everyone and see you enjoy your vacations with us. The board has amended the guideline book, so refresh yourself and go to our web page www.jessejonesioofpark.com and read through the rules. Please also have any guests you invite, go to the web page and read the rules before they come to the park. Also if you book for a guest, YOU are responsible to make any changes or cancellations for them, and you will be held responsible for their no call no show charges. In the past our members have always treated the park as their own, they returned the tables to where they belonged, swept off their sites, and made sure they cleaned up after themselves. We are not seeing that being done as much now. Please remember being an Odd Fellow and Rebekah is all about Respect, Honor and Dignity. So please restore the campsite to the way you found it to ensure everyone enjoys the same quality of camping that you did. We are looking into a security system, so if any of you have experience in this matter and would like to help guide us in choosing what would be best for the park I would be very grateful. If you have not been receiving email confirmations of your reservations this year send an email to the park at oddfellowspark-j@live.com so we can add an email to your profile so you can be notified of your reservations. We should have all of next years' reservations in the computer by the time you read this. If you have any changes give us a call.

Memories From Sovereign Grand Lodge

SGM John Miller opened the Thursday morning SGL Session with the myrtlewood gavel that Allan Jackson had made and presented to him at Oregon's Grand Lodge Sessions in May.

Past IARA President Sharon Magden presented a plack to Oregon for placing third for donations to the Visual Research Foundation. GM E.V.Smith and RAP Denice Meeuwsen accepted the award.

Just a Reminder

If you want an application for the Eye Committee you MUST call the Grand Lodge Office. The committee is receiving old applications that no longer have the correct information on them. DO NOT send them to the Grand Lodge Office. Ron then has to turn around and mail them to the Chairman Inez Kennedy, which takes longer to process and is added postage. All of the information you need and where to send it is on the new form. Thank you.

Odd Fellow / Muscovite Weekend of Service and Fun in Tillamook (MoosCow)

Tillamook Odd Fellow Lodge No. 94 is hosting its annual Pumpkin Patch on Thursday Oct. 4 and Friday Oct. 5. The lodge covers its property with pumpkins and invites over 800 grade schoolers to come out, venture through the corn maze, and pick their own pumpkins.

This great event is a true community activity. Besides the pumpkins, the children also visit exhibits and learn lessons from Smokey the Bear, Oregon State Police, Tillamook Pioneer Museum and others.

Each night, the Lodge holds a Barbeque to thank the volunteers and to visit with all the Odd Fellows and Muscovites that come from around the state to help out.

Saturday the jovial Muscovites of the Great Duchy of MoosCow celebrate Oddtoberfest! Food, fun, fraternity are the orders of the day! Not a Muscovite yet? No worries! Everyone is invited to join the party, and if you want to become a Muscovite, MoosCow will be putting on the degree! The Muscovite degree is an interactive comedy that is pure fun for everyone taking, confiring and watching. After the degree, the party will move to the beach for an old fashioned bonfire.

Odd Fellows and Muscovites are needed to help with the Pumpkin Patch, and everyone is invited to Saturday's Muscovite Degree and Oddtoberfest! Please help us plan by contacting Brett Hurliman at bhurliman@yahoo.com to let him know if you are coming.

The Hidden Treasures of Odd Fellowship

Have you ever wished that we could have a new approach to explain and show what Odd Fellowship is all about? Wait no more, Oregon has a You Tube video that can help. To view, please go to the link below. Then, share it with your lodge members at a lodge meeting; then you and your members can share it with prospective members. It's a win win approach to our fraternal organization now celebrating 200 years of friendship, love and truth.
